

If you must test the warning system over the radio, why in the name of sanity can't you do it BETWEEN programmes, not slap in the middle of them????